Why Are We Here

• To engage participants in interactive discussion utilizing personas built around CMIST categories

• Explore how well we, as a whole community, are serving the needs of SCCO diverse pops

• Gather information and ideas for how to improve planning and service delivery
Why We Are Here (2)

• Format for the next 90 mins
• Two previous breakout sessions
• Doesn’t end there....
Disaster Time Frame: RECOVERY
Instructions

• Scenario to be read aloud before you disperse to small groups
• Choose a breakout room
• Guided discussion and use of jamboards
• Pick a person to report out
Use of Jamboards

• To capture info shared in each breakout room
• Specific links will be shared once you enter your room
• Encourage use of desktop or laptop computer; not phone or tablet if possible
• ACCESS = if not comfortable using technology, speak aloud and notes will be put up for you on the boards
Use of Jamboards

1. Group introductions
2. Pick a persona
3. Jamboard instructions and practice
4. Scenario and discussion using remaining boards

NOTE: “Parking lot” board is at the end of deck, if needed
It’s been a few days since the fires and local government has asked you to help establish a Point of Distribution (POD), in fact, they want to create the “Perfect POD.”

A POD is a temporary location where resources are distributed. These resources might include supplies, information, or even comfort to everyone affected by the disaster.

Think outside the box, consider the needs of ALL the affected community during this disaster.
