Reporting

- Did any organization have damage? What type?
- Did you hear about clients with flooding or damage?
- Do you do welfare checks after storms/earthquakes.
- How do you communicate?
- Did you provide any relief supplies to anyone?

- Review safety with apartment managers - what to do if power is out.
- Give CADRE the addresses of apartments with vulnerable populations and we'll notify PG&E.

Storm Response:

PG&E reports just over 3,000 customers are without power in San José as of 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 7, down from nearly 50,000 earlier this week. The City of San José is assessing the damage from the storm moving through the Bay Area. For more information, visit PG&E's outage map at: <https://pgealerts.alerts.pge.com/outage-tools/outage-map/>.

Was Your Property Damaged in the Storm?

If the storm caused structural damage to your property, call 408-535-3555. We have a Damage Survey process to help you quickly obtain permits and inspections.

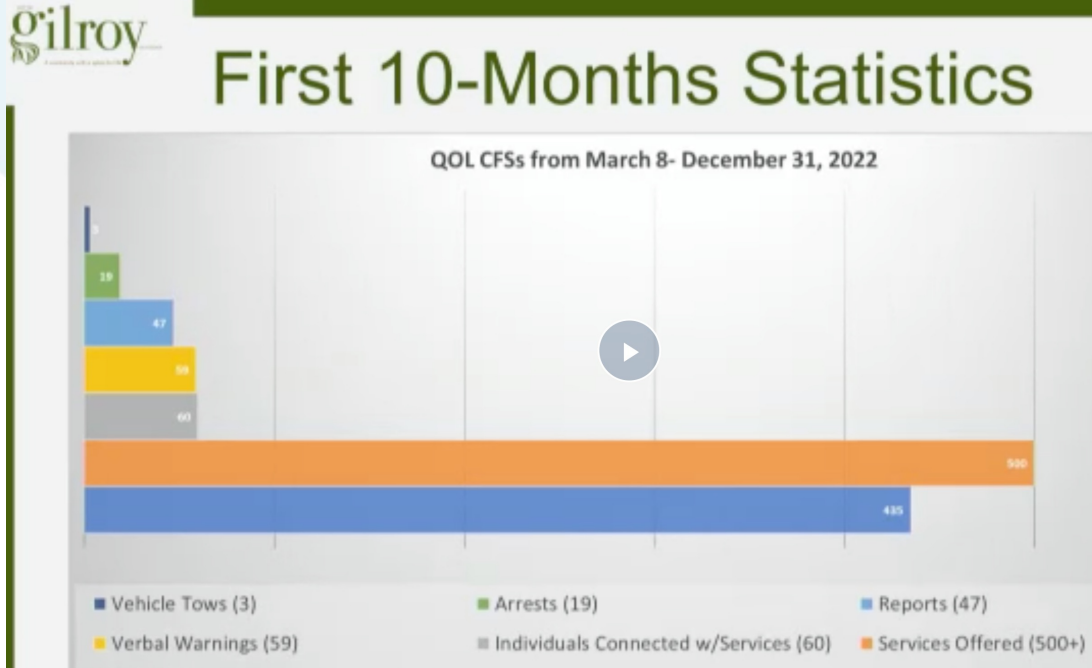

- This is only for structural damage.
- Damage Survey fee may apply.
- City construction taxes will not be charged on related building permits.
- For more information, visit bit.ly/StormDamageHelp.

OWL at Community Christian Church by Referral

Hear 4 You Hotline 408-385-2400 M-F 9-5

Conducts outreach and a needs assessment to help the unhoused residents access shelter, services, housing opportunities, and more. This may include alongside County Behavioral Health to ensure mental health services are being provided to those in our unhoused community in need. This Crisis Intervention Response allows us to coordinate Mental Health Service Needs, Housing, and Medical. If you encounter someone in crisis, please call the Mobile Crisis Response Team at 800-704-0900.

Overnight Warming Location (OWL)

A seasonal shelter program for up to 10 unhoused individuals who are provided overnight shelter when the County of Santa Clara declares an Inclement Weather Alert during periods of extreme cold. No referral needed, first 10 people get in. Operated by the City of Palo Alto and Heart and Home Collaborative.

People interested in the program can call (650) 463-4953 for more information and to check if the shelter is open.
